

Revise property valuations regularly

Property valuations should be revised regularly to promote horizontal equity

Good planning

Effective procurement requires good planning

Country systems

Using country systems where possible

Climate change

Climate change and budgets

Expenditure associated with climate change initiatives should be made explicit in government budgets.